McCoy Urges His Claims To Championship, But In Vain

Pretensions Are Based on D efeat of Chip, but Contender Will First Have to Battle With Other Claimants Before His Position Will Be Unquestioned; English Polo Team Sho ws Many Changes.

BY TOM THORP.

SW YORK, April 20.—That very much rehashed story as 10 who has the clearest title to the middle weight, chumpionship has once again, by the unexpected defeat of the self proclaimed title holder, George Chip of Newcastle at the hands of an altogether unknown scrapper by the main proclaimed that delivers the goods, he is, the man that can possibly make the weight.

The announcement that Jim Coffey and Brooklyn phenom here that it is today the topic of conversation wherever members of the sporting fraternity meet.

Many are the briefs set forward that if Mechanic and Brombarder with the base of the patrons of the claim of the other fight found Brooklyn phenom because it is to the thing of the patrons of the claim of the patrons of the fall in the title core of the claim of the other fight found Brooklyn phenom because it is to the thing of the patrons of the claim of the patrons of players that competed against captain players that competed against captain two separate fights. Klaus's claim was won by his defeat of Billy Papke and Carpentier, after the former had amsed himself to be proclaimed the tragic death of Stanley Katchel, the undefeated champion. In fact, the undefeated champion. In fact, the chilin of Chip to the premier honors is disputed by Eddie McGoorty and Jack Dilion both of whom scored wins over Klaus. For this reason the claim of Chip is not as clear as most experis would wish, and therefore the win of Jack Dougherty's lad over thin of Jack Dougherty's lad over thin of the major honors.

The victory, though, it may be said, gives him the clear title to engage in a championship encounter, and at the same time gives him the prestige to dictate the time, place, weight and necessary guarantee for such an encounter. He is without doubt a wonderful specimen of the up to date ex-

Fence Is Responsible For Their Victory.

Santa Rits dropped into second place of the percentage column, as a result of the salia kus gropped into second place of the percentage column, as a result of the victory.

After one run had been scored in the eighth Charlie Eaton went into the box for Santa Rita, and held the Fort Bayard players down. Wright, who is a left handed batter, hit the third bail pitched, for a home run in the minth, which was an incurve, a weakness of Eaton's against left hand hitters, bringing in Welsh and Pitman, who were on first and secund base respectively.

Cecii Nellis, extwirler of the El Paso White Sox, pitched a consistent game but was hit freely throughout the contest, After two runs had been made in the account, Neilis pitched good hall, although Santa Rita added one run in each in the third, sixth and eighth stansis.

Because umpire Saims was not looking toward third base Neilis was declared safe in the seventh inning, on a play at third hass. The game was protested by Santa Rita, because of the play Tommy Smith contending that Nellis was out.
